OTWorld.campus

FOR EDUCATION THAT INSPIRES.
FOR THE PROFESSIONALS OF TOMORROW.

OTWorld.campus brings you together with the next generation in the field of modern orthopaedic treatment and care. Showcase the career paths available in healthcare, highlight your areas of expertise, and demonstrate why your institution is the right choice. In times of skilled labor shortages, educational institutions play a key role. After all, high-quality treatment begins with high-quality education – solid, practice-oriented, and future-ready. Whether it's a master craftsman programme, a university degree, or interdisciplinary training: those who inspire and empower young people today are helping shape the treatment standards of tomorrow.

WHO CAN TAKE PART?

Are you a master school, university, college, or research institute? Then OTWorld.campus 2026 is your platform to showcase what you and your team have to offer – and how diverse the educational paths into modern assistive technology can be. From advanced training and master-level courses to degree programmes and professional development – this is the perfect stage for your programmes.

OTWorld.campus:
Your chance to connect with aspiring talents and to spark new ideas – dynamic, hands-on,
and inspiring.

WE BRING YOUR TARGET GROUP TO YOU!

You provide high-quality programmes – we make sure the right people hear about them. Through our website, newsletters, social media, and targeted outreach, we'll give your offering the visibility it deserves – and connect you with exactly the young professionals you are looking for.

Youth.Academy TO – INSIGHTS AND EXCHANGE FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

Youth.Academy Technical Orthopaedics is a nationwide initiative by the German Association of Orthopaedic Technology (BIV-OT). It aims to promote interdisciplinary development for young professionals in orthopaedic treatment and care and related healthcare fields.

It offers early networking opportunities within the professional community and direct access to further education and training. Originally launched by a group of trainees, the Association of Supporters and Teachers in Orthopaedic Technology (ALLOF e. V.), and BIV-OT, Youth.Academy TO has become a permanent fixture of OTWorld and is supported by numerous industry partners.

In 2026, Youth.Academy TO will take place on 21 and 22 May in Leipzig. The programme includes professional insights into the World Congress and Trade Show, as well as a relaxed networking barbecue in the evening.
