Author
Kranzl, Andreas (Wien AT) | Ing.-Dr.
Orthopädisches Spital Speising GmbH

Title
Does the SHAP reflect the amount of compensatory movement in upper limb tasks?

Coauthors
Unglaube F, Kranzl A

Summary
The SHAP and the Arm Profile Score are commonly used tools to assess upper limb functions [1]. No correlation was found between the SHAP and the APS. The SHAP seems to be not a robust indicator to describe compensatory movements.

Introduction
-

Methods
-

Results
-

Conclusion
-

References